My dear Sir:-

Answer to your letter of last April has been prevented by a great pressure of work which left me little time for anything.

However, better late than never. Accordingly I hand you herewith the enclosed application blank together with cheque for half dues for the current year.

In case I should not be elected you can easily return it.

Yours sincerely,

Cyrus Townsend Brady

Gentlemen:-

Will you kindly drop my name from the membership roll of the Society?
I find it impossible to give such attention to it as I should like.

Yours sincerely,

Cyrus Townsend Brady

My dear Mr. Noe:-

From the fact that documents relating to the Society continue to be sent to me I infer that my resignation handed you a long time since has been overlooked.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Mr. Brady,

Referring to your note of the 12th instant, I have to advise that at a meeting of the Council held on April 7, your resignation was accepted.

This will account for your having received communications from us recently, as your name had not, previous to that time, been taken from our list.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.
